

Profile

I'm a London-based multimedia content producer and trained journalist with three years of industry experience.

After time spent mentoring students in media standards and practice, I'm now looking for new opportunities in digital media.

Education

UNIVERSITY OF SHEFFIELD

PG.Dip Broadcast Journalism

I received training in modern journalistic standards from a wealth of industry experts, including opportunities and challenges of the online space.

Via highly practical "newsdays", I got to put my skills and ethical understanding into practice, hunting down real stories in a simulated broadcast and online newsroom.
2015-16

UNIVERSITY OF SHEFFIELD

B.Sc Biology

Graduating with a 2.1 degree, I learned advanced data analysis and science communication skills.

I served on the departmental student staff committee and chose to complete an Undergraduate Ambassador Scheme, for which I planned and delivered science lessons to classes of schoolchildren.
2012-15

SOLIHULL COLLEGE

A-levels

Experience

STUDENT MEDIA COORDINATOR UWSU

I support students at the University of Westminster with training and development opportunities in student media, along with advising on legal and ethical best practices.

I have overseen improvements in membership and the quality and quantity of output, along with leading two projects to construct dedicated student media facilities at the university.

I also plan and produce short films to improve engagement with UWSU campaigns and events.

2016-present

PRODUCTION EDITOR Cubedgamers

I produce print-ready designs for a national gaming magazine start-up, working as part of a five-person editorial team.

2016-present

REPORTER/COPYWRITER Exposed Magazine

I wrote news stories, reviews and interviews for a monthly culture magazine and website, along with writing tailored copy for sponsored content.

2015-2016

DIGITAL CONTENT PRODUCER Sheffield Students' Union

I worked as part of a team to produce short films, photography and other media to tight deadlines, boosting audience engagement with key marketing campaigns.

2014-16

MARKETING ASSISTANT Advanced Biomanufacturing Centre

I organised and marketed an international scientific conference, editing the conference brochure, procuring merchandise, acquiring sponsorship and updating website content.

2014

DEPUTY STATION MANAGER Forge TV

I drove the major projects and supported the membership of an award-winning student TV station. I supervised a budget of over £4000, overseeing a complete rebrand, along with a renewed focus on training and paid video hires.

2014-16

ARTS EDITOR Forge Press

I produced pages for a fortnightly student newspaper and website, managed a team of volunteer contributors and cultivated contacts in the arts world, setting up interviews and press night tickets.
